PROFILE

Content and product marketing specialist with four years across fintech, AI, crypto, and web3, focused on making complex, technical topics clear and compelling for sophisticated audiences. Built editorial operations at a web3 media outlet from scratch, led content strategy for NFT and gaming projects, and created marketing materials for analytics and AI platforms. MA in Literature and Culture (media theory focus), thesis on the attention economy and online communities, Grade 1.0.

EXPERIENCE

Freelance — Content & Communications

Berlin • Mar 2024 – Present

Content and communications work across AI, crypto, and web3. At Researchpreneurs, an AI R&D platform, rebuilt the website content architecture from scratch, managed the CMS, ran landing page experiments, and built AI workflows for content production, reporting directly to the CEO. Led content strategy for AFEL, a Solana NFT project with 8,400 SOL all-time volume: wrote social copy, managed artists, and built messaging across Discord and X. Contribute blog content and technical explainers for AI platforms, and run a weekly Substack publication on prediction markets and DeFi.

Merkezsiz — Editor & Content Lead
